Arts & Cultural Events

The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe

Date/Time: Feb. 1st-2nd, Various Times

Location: Peace Center Gunter Theatre

Cost: Adults $28 Children $19

Description: What begins as an innocent exploration of an old home, winds up taking siblings Lucy, Edmund, Susan and Peter far beyond their wildest imaginations, as they step through a huge wardrobe, into a land where an evil witch has taken control and misery reigns. They soon realize they haven't arrived in Narnia by chance, but have been brought here to play a very important part in restoring natural order and keeping the peace in this magical land. By demonstrating love, keeping faith and showing courage, the children find they have the power to triumph over evil and return Narnia to its rightful leader. Children and adults alike will be enthralled by this classic C.S. Lewis story.

Concert, Opera & Drama Series: Pirates of Penzance

Date/Time: Feb. 6th, 7:30pm

Location: Rodeheaver Auditorium

Cost: $38-$47

Description: This New York Gilbert & Sullivan Players production is your chance to get carried away by Pirates. Join the band of swash-buckling buccaneers, bumbling British, frolicsome Victorian maidens, and the delightfully dotty "model of a modern Major-General" for a romp over the rocky coast of Cornwall. This exuberant musical theater masterpiece is performed in its original format. The rich sounds of full orchestra, chorus, and vocal soloists resonate with classic elegance and power while the company's vibrancy and energy keep the show alive and exciting.

My Fair Lady

Date/Time: Feb. 1st- 2nd, Various Times

Location: The Peace Center

Cost: $35-$105

Description: From Lincoln Center Theater that brought you "The King & I" and "South Pacific", comes "a sumptuous new production of the most perfect musical of all time" (Entertainment Weekly), Lerner & Loewe's My Fair Lady. Director Bartlett Sher's glowing production is "thrilling, glorious and better than it ever was" (The New York Times). "Every so often a revival comes along that reminds you how indispensable great theater can be" (NY1). Boasting such classic songs as "I Could Have Danced All Night," "The Rain in Spain," "Wouldn't It Be Lovely," and "On the Street Where You Live," My Fair Lady tells the story of Eliza Doolittle, a young Cockney flower seller, and Henry Higgins, a linguistics professor who is determined to transform her into his idea of a "proper lady." But who is really being transformed?

Che Malambo

Date/Time: Feb. 18th, 7pm

Location: The Peace Center

Cost: $45

Description: Presenting a thrilling, percussive dance and music spectacle, Argentinian company Che Malambo excites audiences through precise footwork, rhythmic stomping, drumming bombos, and whirling boleadoras. This powerhouse all-male company celebrates the unique South American cowboy tradition of the gaucho. The Malambo, traditionally danced by men, began in the 17th century as competitive duels that would challenge skills of agility, strength, and dexterity. Zapateo, their fast-paced footwork, is inspired by the rhythm of galloping horses in their native Argentina. Che Malambo brings fiery Malambo traditions and virtuosic dancing to the contemporary stage for an exhilarating and entertaining show that is perfect for the whole family.
